

EXTRA-CURRICULAR ACTIVITIES AT AHA

Tradition • Leadership • Excellence

Bridge Club

“Bridge is a game full of strategy and tactics. It’s part science, part math, part logic, part reason. Bridge embodies cooperation, logic, problem-solving and has even been linked to higher test scores among children. Bridge is also a partnership game. Trust, communication and patience are the essential attributes of winning at bridge. Memory, problem-solving skills, logic and reasoning, social skills, cooperation and sportsmanship --- all of these are strengthened with bridge. It is played by millions of Americans, and tens of millions of people worldwide.”

When: Mondays after school until 5:00.
Who: Recommended for 5th Grade and up although younger students who are motivated will be able to join.
Facilitator: CofC Professor Josh Shanes

Newspaper Club

The student newspaper is a great opportunity for students to explore various aspects of journalism as well as computer layout. Student staff will include editors, photographers and contributors. The club will meet bi-weekly to get their assignments, critique and layout the newspaper. Articles touch on all aspects of school life, including academics, social events, Judaic subjects and school spirit.

When: Every other Wednesday (1st and 3rd of each month)
Who: Middle School
Facilitators: Nancy Peeples, Mottie Wieters, and Lori Gleaton

Creative Writing

Creative writing offers students with a passion for writing a unique opportunity for self-expression. Students in 3rd Grade and up will meet every other week to explore a broad spectrum of genres including poetry, fairy tales, etc.

When: Every-other Wednesday after school until 5:00.
Who: 3rd Grade and up (3rd-5th Grades will meet 1st and 3rd Wed.; 6th Grade and up meet the 2nd and 4th Wed.)
Facilitator: Alli Debrow

Chorus

Did you know that choral singing is the most popular form of participation in the performing arts for both adults and children? If you enjoy singing, join the AHA Chorus.

As a music lover, Mrs. Ellen Miriam Brandwein has studied music in college and will teach a variety of song styles. The choir will have the opportunity to perform at various school and community functions.

When: Tuesdays through December 15th
Who: 1st—8th Grades
Facilitator: Ellen Miriam Brandwein

Debate Club

Participation in debating clubs offers students an opportunity to strengthen their public speaking and debating skills while improving poise and confidence. Students will work together to research topics and formulate arguments. This club will culminate with a debate against select AHA parents.

When: Thursdays until 4:30
Who: 6th-8th Grades
Facilitator: Fletcher Crossman

All clubs will start the week of October 12th except Creative Writing which is already underway. A $5 Activity Fee per Club due October 12th. Make checks payable to AHA.
